

■ Single-Tooth Treatment Packages

Surgical Components

- Prosthetic Guide
Stent designed to convey the ideal position of the implant from a prosthetic perspective
- Surgical Drills
New drills ensure maximum cutting efficiency for each case
- Inclusive Tapered Implant
High-quality titanium alloy with proven RBM surface treatment for reliable root replacement

BioTemps® Tissue Contouring Solution

- Custom Healing Abutment
Features patient-specific contours to train soft tissue during healing phase
- Custom Temporary Abutment
Features patient-specific contours to train soft tissue and support provisional restoration during healing phase
- Custom Provisional Crown
A natural-looking temporary to serve the patient at any stage of implant treatment
- Custom Impression Coping
Patient-specific contours help convey the precise gingival architecture to the laboratory

Final Prosthetic Components

- Inclusive Custom Abutment
Features patient-specific contours for optimal emergence profile and support of restoration, available in titanium or zirconia
- BruxZir® Solid Zirconia (or IPS e.max®) Crown
Monolithic restoration provides an ideal blend of functional strength and toothlike esthetics

IPS e.max is a registered trademark of Ivoclar Vivadent.